THE KITCHEN

You are now in 'Ye Kitching' of lawyer Richard Preston. This was the family's kitchen, living room and dining room. Richard's wife, Lettice, would have spent most of her time here with the other women and children of the household. Just as it is today, the kitchen was a warm and comfortable place to gather, dine and relax.

Lettice had a state-of-the-art clockwork jack to turn roasting meat. Look carefully and you will see the filled-in holes where it was bolted to the fireplace. The Prestons kept cows, sheep and a pig. They brewed their own beer and made their own cheese. We keep to their tradition of home cooked food, sourced ethically and locally.
